

Baseball Practice—Team

By Amy Johnson

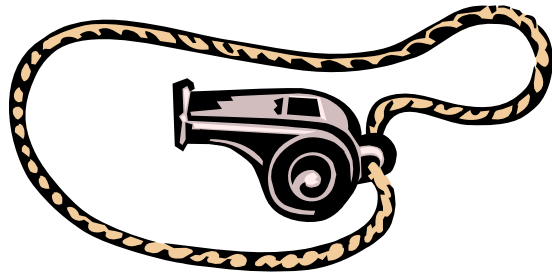

I'm a baseball player, and I am on a team!

I have friends who are Team Mates. Grown ups are our coaches

I have to take turns talking to my coach. My coach is helping all of my team mates.

My coach will blow a whistle if we need to pay attention.
When the Coach blows the whistle, I get to ready stance and look at my coach.

My coach teaches us and keeps me safe

My coach is teaching me to play baseball, I always listen to my coach.
