

On Monday January 11th, at 6pm, I will go to my first basketball practice!

I may know some people there. Some people
I may not know. It is okay, because I will meet everyone!

While I am waiting for all the kids to come to practice, I can play with the basketballs.

Once everyone gets to practice, I will listen to the coaches and began stretching.

When we are all done stretching, we will sit down in a circle and learn everyone's name.

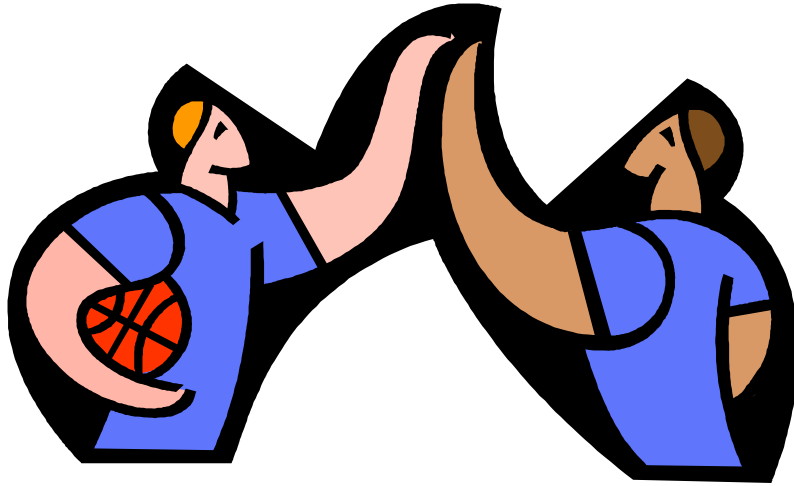

We will then go over the schedule of what we will be doing at practice.

We will then begin practice!

If I need to take a break, get a drink of water, or go to the bathroom, I will tell my coach so he or she can take me!

I will have fun at basketball. I will listen to the coaches. I will be nice to all my teammates!
