

Presentation on supports available once selected from the PUNS list

Who: All guardians, parents, families, and students who are currently on the PUNS list. Students or parents who are interested in being placed on the PUNS list. Educators, professionals, etc. PUNS (Prioritization for Urgency of Need for Services) is a statewide database of individuals with developmental disabilities who are in need of services.

About: Megan Mutti, from the ARC of Illinois, will give an informational session on CILA services, Home-based Supports, ICFDD, Supportive Housing, I-CILA, and related services and supports.

Maria Burkhart from CISA will also be on hand to enroll or update individuals on the PUNS list! If enrolling on the PUNS list for the first time, please bring a copy of your most current IEP/Re-Eval and Social Security Number.

Cost: Free!

When: Tuesday April 30th, 2019, 6:00pm (presentations last 1-2 hours)

New Location!: The Chateau 1621 Jumer Drive, Bloomington, IL
Please park in the back of the hotel, enter through the conference center doors, and follow the signs to the Bonaparte room.

RSVP to Emily Kull at: ekull@roe17.org or by phone at: 309-888-5120 x1210