NOTES: March 19, 2019 — Autism & Local Housing

Agenda

 Introduction — Kari Sandhaas, Autism Friendly Community Chair, Autism McLean Major take-aways from Feb 19 session

Panel Presentations

- Where does a parent start? (PUNS, etc.) Champaign County Regional Planning Commission, Angela Yost
- Local Residential Providers:
 What are current residential services?
 - Bloomington Housing Authority Jennifer Mayer, CHSP Service Coordinator
 - Marcfirst Laura Furlong, CEO and Becky Brennan, Vice President of Residential & Quality Assurance
 - Homes of Hope Maureen Wyhs, Executive Director
- How Community Development Block Grants (CDBG) funding impacts local housing: considerations by municipal planners
 - Jennifer Toney, Grant Coordinator, City of Bloomington, and
 - Taylor Long, Associate Planner, Town of Normal
 - Planning for the Future:
 McLean County Regional Planning Commission citizen survey

Break

- Write your questions on the index cards one question per card. Turn in during the break!

- Refreshments
- Information tables
- April Events: Autism Awareness Month!

Q&A with Panelists

 Moderator – Nikki Michalak, ISU, Autism McLean Board

Closing Remarks/What's Next

SAVE THE DATE: May 21 – 6-8 pm Normal Public Library Community Room

Future Needs & Goals: What next?

Join us for some dreaming, brainstorming, goal setting, and action planning

This Autism & Housing series is brought to you by the Autism Friendly Community collaboration of Autism McLean, Marcfirst, IWU Autism Peer group, Friends of TAP, and HEAL Foundation.

